A PROCLAMATION,

For Encouraging Seamen to Enter themselves on Board His Majesties Ships of War.

GEORGE R.

WHereas for the Defence of our Realms we have directed, That several of our Ships of War be forthwith fitted out for our Sea-Service, and it is our Royal Intention to give all due Encouragement to all such Able and Ordinary Seamen, who shall Voluntarily Enter themselves in our Service, and remain on Board our Ships of War in our Royal Navy, we have thought fit by and with the Advice of our Privy-Council, to Publish this our Royal Proclamation; and we do hereby Promise and Declare, That all such Seamen (not above the Age of Fifty five Years, and not under the Age of Sixteen Years) who, on or since the One and twentieth Day of July now last past, have Voluntarily Entred, or on or before the Four and twentieth Day of this Instant Month of August, shall Voluntarily Enter themselves in our Service with any Officer or Officers of our Ships of War, who are or shall be, within the Times aforesaid, in Sea-Pay, or other Commission Sea-Officer, to Serve on Board any of Our said Ships of War, shall receive, as our Free Gift and Royal Bounty, the Reward and Allowance of one Months Pay, to be Paid to them respectively by the Principal Officers and Commissioners of our Navy, before the respective Ships, on which they shall be, do proceed to Sea. Given at Our Court at St. James's the Fifth Day of August, 1715. In the Second Year of Our Reign.

God save the KING.

St. James's, August 8. The following Addresses have been presented to his Majesty.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Bishop and Clergy of the Cities of London and Westminster, most humbly crave leave to renew the Assurances we have lately given of the true and faithful Allegiance, which by the Principles and Doctrines of the Church of England, we are in Duty bound to bear to your Majesty, and to return our most hearty Thanks for your gracious and effectual Care of those Interests of our Holy Religion, in which Her late Majesty Queen Anne, of ever blessed Memory, proceeded so far, and which we humbly presum'd to lay before your Majesty at your Accession to the Throne. We think our selves more especially obliged to repeat those assurances at this Time, when an Invasion apprehended from Abroad, and Tumults fomented at Home, seem combin'd together to disturb the Peace and Tranquility of your Government, to expose your Kingdoms to the danger of an Inteſtine War, your People to mutual Slaughter and Deſtruction, and to ſully the Beginnings of your Majeſty's Reign.

We conſider in theſe Circumſtances with the greateſt affliction of Mind, the viſible hazard of our Conſtitution both in Church and State, as alſo of your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon, of your Royal Family, of all your good Subjects, and eſpecially of ſo many Chriſtian Souls that there is too much reaſon to fear may be loſt on this Occaſion, unleſs the hand of Heaven interpoſe in your and our Defence, and enable you with the faithful and vigorous Services of your Subjects to prevent the ruinous Effects of ſuch Attempts.

It is therefore and ſhall be our dayly Prayer to Almighty God to direct your Majeſty's Counſels in this Exigence, to proſper your Endeavours, and grant you a happy and unbloody Iſſue out of all theſe Difficulties. We ſhall alſo labour with all our Power to root out of the Minds of your Majeſty's Subjects, under our Care, all the Seeds and Principles of Sedition, and to confirm them in thoſe duties of unfeigned Loyalty, and Submiſſion to your Majeſty's lawful Authority, and a hearty Affection to Monarchy, which, notwithſtanding all the Contradiction and Contagion of others, have been, and we truſt will continue to be a ſhining Part of the Character of a true Church of England Man, and thereby we hope that by the Divine Aſſiſtance we ſhall be able to poſſeſs them with a lively Senſe of their Duty and Intereſt, in adhering ſtedfaſtly to your Majeſty and your Royal Family, and oppoſing with Heart and Hand the Pretender, his Abettors, and all others whatever that ſhall go about to diſturb your Majeſty's Government over us, (which God long continue) and to deprive us of the Happineſs of living under it in Peace, Godlineſs, and Honeſty.

His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you heartily for the Aſſurances you give Me of your Loyalty and Affection to my Perſon and Government, and for the ſeaſonable and juſt Reſentment you expreſs againſt thoſe who by fomenting Rebellious Tumults at Home, give the greateſt Encouragement to our Enemies Abroad; the Church of England as by Law eſtabliſhed, may depend upon having my Countenance and Protection.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Inhabitants of the Corporation of Lancaſter; preſented to his Majeſty by D. Braddyll, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Derby.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Town-Clerk, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of Glouceſter; preſented to his Majeſty by Edward Cook, Eſq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkley.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Exeter; preſented to his Majeſty by the Reverend Dr. Linford, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, and Militia Officers of the County of Cheſter; preſented to his Majeſty by Colonel Leigh of Adlington, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the County of Cheſter.

Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Copenhagen, Auguſt 6. Yeſterday Morning four of the Men of War newly fitted out here, ſailed to reinforce Admiral Rabe; another Man of War ſailed from hence on the 2d Inſtant; and when theſe 5 have joyned the Admiral, his Fleet will conſiſt of 21 Ships of the Line. Three more Men of War are fitting out here with all Diligence.

Hambourg, Auguſt 9. 'Tis adviſed from the Camp before Stralſund, that after General Arnheim had poſſeſſed himſelf of all the Iſland of Uſedom, except the Fort of Penemunde, he opened a Communication between Uſedom and Wolgaſt, and is making Preparations for attacking the Fort of Penemunde. On the 5th in the Morning the King of Pruſſia arrived at Grypſwald, and proceeded from thence to Wolgaſt, in his way to Uſedom. On the 6th the King of Denmark arrived at Grypſwald at Noon, and 2 Hours after went on to Wolgaſt. The Daniſh Squadron under Vice-Admiral Seheſtedt is ſafe, and that Vice-Admiral has offered to ſupply with Cannon the Pruſſians who are on the Iſland of Uſedom.

St. James's, Auguſt 8. Patents are paſſed the Great Seal appointing the Right Honourable John Lord Somers Cuſtos Rotulorum for the County of Worceſter. And Sir Arthur Owen, Bar. Cuſtos Rotulorum for the County of Pembroke.
